

THE CLARINET FAMILY

REMEMBER: Clarinets are part of the woodwind family.

Bb

Eb

Bass

TRUE OR FALSE:

Clarinets and saxophones have double reeds.      T      F

A bass clarinet is a low-sounding clarinet.      T      F

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

Clarinet reeds are made from:

- a. ebony wood
- b. tree branches
- c. bamboo or cane

Mozart was a composer who lived in the:

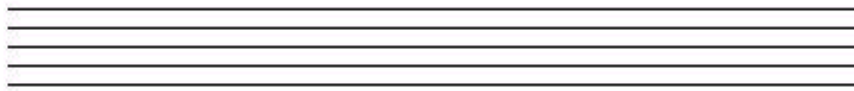

- a. Middle Ages
- b. late 1700s
- c. same neighborhood as Gershwin

A special kind of Jewish music from Eastern Europe is called:

- a. Ketchup music
- b. Klutzy music
- c. Klezmer music

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

Last week you learned about whole notes, half notes, and quarter notes.
Can you remember what they look like? Try drawing some on the staff below hints: empty circle, empty circle with a stem, black circle with a stem