

Remember: Two popular activities in Scotland are dancing and playing the bagpipes.

Look! It's Jollip's favorite instrument!
This man is playing the

_____.

Scotland is part of the United Kingdom, along with England, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

MULTIPLE CHOICE:
The most popular Scottish dance is:

- A. The Rialto
- B. The Reel
- C. The Rigaudon
- D. The Real Cool

An ancient language from both Scotland and Ireland is:

- A. Garlic
- B. Gambling
- C. Gaelic
- D. Garage

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

What word do these notes spell? Hint: the bottom line of the treble staff is E, so try counting upwards using the musical alphabet, and fill in the blanks!

This program made possible by the generous support of the City of Albuquerque Urban Enhancement Trust Fund.

