

Remember: Singing voices are divided into soprano, alto, tenor, and bass.

Can you guess the name of this bird? In Hebrew, this bird is called a zamir, and you can see the same bird in the Chorale logo.

This bird is a:

Many languages use alphabets that are different from the English alphabet. Here are the first two letters in the Hebrew alphabet: Aleph and Bet. Practice drawing these letters in the blank spaces next to each one:

ALEPH

BET

Voices are usually divided into the four groups listed below. Put the groups in order from highest (on the top) to lowest (on the bottom), then write an M next to the groups which are male voices, and an F next to the groups which are female voices.

- | | | | |
|---------|----|-------|------------------|
| TENOR | 1. | _____ | (highest voices) |
| SOPRANO | 2. | _____ | |
| ALTO | 3. | _____ | |
| BASS | 4. | _____ | (lowest voices) |
