

VISIT TO THE OPERA

FILL IN THE BLANK:

The Santa Fe Opera is located in the state of N__ M_____.

You might see _____ hopping around the grounds of the Santa Fe Opera.

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

A solo song in an opera is called an _____ antelope _____ aria _____ opportunity

The words to an opera are called the _____ libretto _____ library book _____ limbo

In opera a conversation is sung, not spoken. This is called a _____ recited song _____ rabbit _____ recitative

Carmen* is among the most famous of all operas, with a realistic Spanish setting and exciting story. It was composed by Georges Bizet (1838-1875).

TRUE or FALSE:

Children can't appear in operas because they last past their bedtime. T F

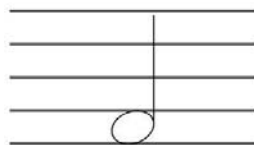

It takes hundreds of people to put on an opera. T F

Singing at the opera is easy because the singers all have microphones. T F

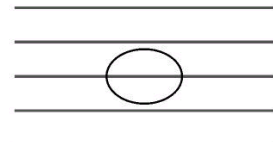

An overture is the music the orchestra plays at the beginning of the opera. T F

Quarter Note (1 count)

Half Note (2 counts)

Whole Note (4 counts)

This program was made possible by support from Friends of Boombox.