

WOMEN COMPOSERS

Circle the correct answers:

Jollip's "funky instrument" is called a:

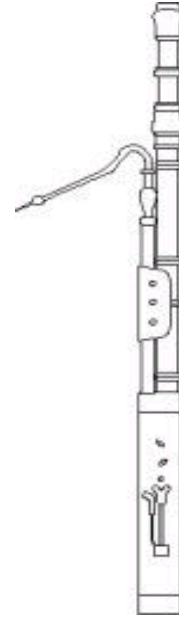

bass fiddle bassoon bass flute

Creating or making up music on the spot is called:

improving inventing improvising

Learning about history through old pictures is called:

guessography icecreamology iconography

True or False:

There have always been more women composers than men.

T F

For hundreds of years composing was considered "men's work."

T F

Discrimination means to be nice to everybody all the time.

T F

When you discriminate you are mean to some people and nice to others.

T F

Jollip says: "Remember, Monsters don't discriminate!
You shouldn't discriminate either!"

This program was made possible by support from the William H. and Lillian Dolde Charitable Foundation and the PNM Foundation of New Mexico.