

THE CLARINET FAMILY

REMEMBER: Clarinets are part of the woodwind family.

Bb

Eb

Bass

FILL IN THE BLANK:

Oboes and bassoons have double reeds, while clarinets and saxophones have _____ reeds.

Some clarinets sound high, and some sound low. The low sounding clarinet is called a _____ clarinet.

The ancestor of the modern clarinet is called the b _ _ _ _ _ horn.

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

Clarinet reeds are made from:

- a. ebony wood
- b. tree branches
- c. bamboo or cane

Mozart was a composer who lived in the:

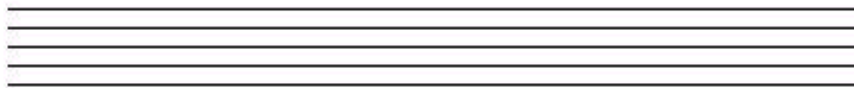

- a. early Middle Ages
- b. late 1700s
- c. 20th century

A special kind of Jewish music from Eastern Europe is called:

- a. Ketchup music
- b. Klutzy music
- c. Klezmer music

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

Last week you learned about whole notes, half notes, and quarter notes. Can you remember what they look like? Try drawing some on the staff below.

hints: empty circle, empty circle with a stem, black circle with a stem