See if you can find these words or phrases:

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| Bunker Hill | fife |
| Colonies | inauguration |
| Constitution | Jollip |
| Declaration | ratify |
| drum | shaped note |
| dulcimer | Washington |
| England | Yankee Doodle |

Above is an example of shaped notes in 1803.

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

The word “ratify” means to:

- a. tell on somebody
- b. agree to something in writing
- c. be nice to rats

An inauguration is the ceremony where:

- a. people agree to new laws
- b. politicians are sworn at
- c. they swear in the president

The second example is modern notation. Can you find at least two differences between the way music was written in 1803 and the way music is written today?

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

Music is divided into measures. Here are the first four measures of Yankee Doodle.

- 1.) Number each measure as 1, 2, 3, or 4. 2.) Circle the treble clef. 3.) Label a quarter note and a half note.
