

Remember: There are lots of different ways to write the same story in music. Composers use their own imaginations and tell the story in different ways.

Bruce Adolphe

Other composers write symphonies and string quartets, but Bruce writes music about rose petals, and red dogs, and even dinosaurs.

Circle the type of dinosaur Bruce wrote about:

Stegosaurus Velociraptor Tyrannosaurus Rex Allosaurus

“Sue” was found by Sue Hendrickson’s _____.

Which instrument did Bruce use for Sue? T R _____

What family of instruments does it belong to? B _____

What are three things a composer has to know?

(Hint: think about the building blocks of music we studied earlier this year!)

R H _____, M _____ Y and H _____ Y

If you could write a piece of music (or a story) about absolutely anything, what would you write about?

Circle the name of another composer mentioned on the show:

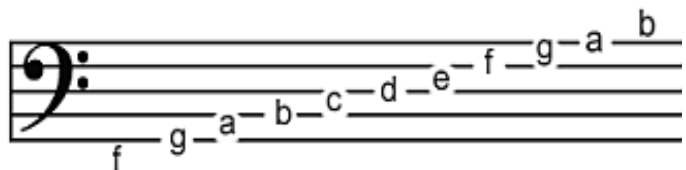

Jollip Bob Prokofiev Smith Tom

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

Note Reading Review

These are notes for the bass clef:

Are these the same letters that we used for the treble clef notes? _____

This program was made possible by the generous support of the City of Albuquerque Urban Enhancement Trust Fund.

