

What is harmony?

- A. people singing or playing different notes
- B. a vegetable called harmony grits
- C. a miniature harmonica

What is unison?

- A. a one-wheeled bicycle
- B. a boy with no brothers or sisters
- C. people singing or playing the same note

Consonance means:

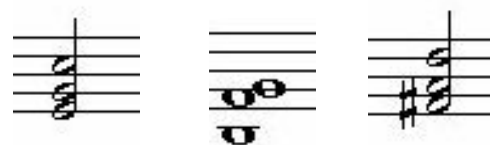

- A. sad sounding chords
- B. peaceful sounding chords
- C. convenient chords

Dissonance means:

- A. disrespectful chords
- B. happy sounding chords
- C. clashing chords

A Monster of Harmony!

Chords! Chords! Chords!

Can you think of some words like “chord” where “ch” is pronounced as a “k”?

How about some words like “cherry” where “ch” is pronounced as “ch”?

EXTRA CREDIT: NOTE READING SKILLS

Here are some examples of chords. Draw your own chords on the empty staff below.

